

The Network of Religious Communities is an organization of denominations, congregations and religious organizations serving Western New York and the Niagara Peninsula of Ontario, Canada.

Our Purpose:

To facilitate communication and increased understanding among its members and among members of the wider community

To foster cooperation within and among the faith communities to which the members belong

To facilitate collaboration in areas of common concern and in response to need in the wider community

To foster justice, peace and the common good in Western New York and the Niagara Peninsula of Ontario

I agree with the NRC mission and understand that my donation of $50 or more entitles me to a one-year auxiliary membership.

Yes! I want to support the Network of Religious Communities.
