

Network of Religious Communities
Radio/Television Ministry

Providing quality programming for the religious community and the general public since 1954

Television	Channel	Day	Time
Challenge For the 21st Century Spirituality and health is the theme of this program which addresses the intersection of healthcare and religious communities Hosts Rev. Dr. G. Stanford Bratton, Co-Executive Director, Network of Religious Communities; Rev. James Lewis III, Spiritual Care Director, Erie County Medical Center; and Ms. Carol Wolf, author and workshop leader in Spirituality and Health.	7 WKBW	1 st Saturdays	6:00 a.m.
	20 Adelphia	Every Friday	8:05 p.m.
Kaleidoscope Multi-faith program featuring segments on religious activities and matters of concern in the community Hosted by a representative of a different religious community each month.	2 WGRZ	1 st Sundays	6:00 a.m.
	20 Adelphia	Every Friday	6:35 p.m.
In Process A continuing discussion of significant issues, events and concerns affecting the religious communities of Western New York. Host: Rev. Dr. G. Stanford Bratton, Co-Executive Director, Network of Religious Communities	4 WIVB	2 nd Sundays	5:30 a.m.
	20 Adelphia	Every Wednesday	5:35 p.m.
Radio	Channel	Day	Time
Crossroads Life experience and spiritual foundation interviews. A rotation of regular monthly hosts. 1 st Sunday: Rev. Dr. Ben Fiore, SJ & Canisius Religious Studies 2 nd Sunday; Rev Mary Masters, Rev Elena Delgado 3 rd Sunday; Rev. Stan Bratton; Rev. Butch Mazur 4 th Sunday; Fr. Peter Jackson, Eastern Orthodox guests. 5 th Sunday; Deacon Rob Ciezki	96.1 WJYE-FM	Every Sunday	6:00 a.m.
	92.9 WBUF-FM		6:30 a.m.

The Network of Religious Communities' Radio/Television Ministry offers many opportunities for volunteers. Responsibilities include hosting and planning programs, interviewing guests, and being interviewed about religious and social topics of interest to the religious community and the general public.

Anyone with media expertise, interviewing skills, or a desire to learn is invited to participate. For additional information, contact Rev. Stan Bratton, at 716-882-4793 ext 201 or e-mail ecustan@earthlink.net.

Keep up to date with Network of Religious Communities broadcast schedule and events visit www.religiousnet.org